

SACRED HEART UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCES

BA - Art and Design (Fall 2007 or Later)

The Graphic Designer learns to communicate visually through concentrated study of graphic design, theory skills a This is a conceptually based visual communications program which focuses on developing the thought processes \ successful solutions to design problems. Such problems that impact the public with images and messages of com| institutions, projects, and individuals are effectively solved by the graphic designer.

The major in art requires the completion of 51 credit hours. All Art Majors are required to complete a Foundation Art Core of 24 27 in Graphic Design. The remaining credits required for graduation are within the core curriculum and general electives of a li education.

Field trips to design studios, printers, and pre-press offices are a regular part of the program, as are guest speakers, critics, an fesitval, and trips to New York City galleries and museums. Internships for class credit are also available with local studios and design departments.
